

the UN Works

2009 World Autism Awareness Day

Under the sponsorship of the United Nations
Department of Public Information,
SingSOS! cordially invites you to hear selections from Songs of the Spectrum, a cycle of songs offering a window into the experience of autism, and commentary from leaders in the field of autism education.

Thursday, 2 April 2009 at 6:00 p.m.
Dag Hammarskjold Auditorium
United Nations Headquarters, New York

Speakers will include:
Bridget Taylor, Alpine Learning Group
Dr. Cece McCarton, McCarton School
Suzanne Letso, Connecticut Center for Child Development
Ilene Lainer of the New York Center for Autism
Master of Ceremonies, John O'Neil, President and Founder of SingSOS!

Song performances by:
Jon Fried and Deena Shoshkes, co-authors with John O'Neil of Songs of the Spectrum

Admission through the Visitors' Entrance, First Avenue at 46th Street.

For security reasons, RSVP and a photo I.D. are required.
Please email unworks@un.org.

Please arrive early so you have time to walk to the theater, a few blocks away inside the U.N. complex!

A CD of Songs of the Spectrum, scheduled for release this fall, features vocal performances by Jackson Browne, Dar Williams, Marshall Crenshaw, Teddy Geiger, Valerie Carter, Jonatha Brooke, Olabelle, Dan Bern, Mike Viola, Ari Hest, Christina Courtin, Kelly Flint, Don Dixon and Marti Jones.